

Post-Treaty Politics: Secretariat Influence in Global Environmental Governance

By Sikina Jinnah, Oran R. Young

MIT Press Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Post-Treaty Politics: Secretariat Influence in Global Environmental Governance, Sikina Jinnah, Oran R. Young, Secretariats -- the administrative arms of international treaties -- would seem simply to do the bidding of member states. And yet, Sikina Jinnah argues in Post-Treaty Politics, secretariats can play an important role in world politics. On paper, secretariats collect information, communicate with state actors, and coordinate diplomatic activity. In practice, they do much more. As Jinnah shows, they can influence the allocation of resources, structures of interstate cooperation, and the power relationships between states. Jinnah examines secretariat influence through the lens of overlap management in environmental governance -- how secretariats help to manage the dense interplay of issues, rules, and norms between international treaty regimes. Through four case studies, she shows that secretariats can draw on their unique networks and expertise to handle the challenges of overlap management, emerging as political actors in their own right. After presenting a theory and analytical framework for analyzing secretariat influence, Jinnah examines secretariat influence on overlap management within the Convention on Biological Diversity (CBD), two cases of overlap management in the World Trade Organization, as well as a case in...
