End Of Days continues the drama surrounding Der Unterworld and the people who are involved. While DL and Lady J struggle to keep the business running, and dealing with their complicated relationship, the spectre of Christopher hangs over everyone. After scouring the world for treatment he finds a solution in China. . . but it cannot stem his slow descent into madness. Nicole has tried to forge a new life for herself outside of the Alternative Lifestyle; however the revenge of a madman drags her back with terrible consequences. When all seems lost DL embarks on a quest to rid the world of his nemesis, only to find solace and the missing part of himself in the guise of an American researcher, her innocence making him question his way of life. He discovers feelings he thought he had lost and contemplates changing everything that makes him the man he is. . . but Joss has fantasies and ideas of her own! The story rolls across Europe as the net tightens on Christopher, the enigmatic Sato lending the power...
