EDUCATION WITHOUT THE STATE

Institute of Economic Affairs. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Education without the State, James Tooley, Functional illiteracy, youth delinquency and lack of technological innovation all point to the failures of state schooling. They raise the question of why governments should be involved in education at all. One justification for state intervention in education is that, without it, there would not be educational opportunities for all. However, the great majority of people would not need state intervention for funding or...
