I have had many questions about my faith, who the spirits are, and how the messages that they bring come to me. I believe that too many people worry about what everyone else thinks. I do not believe you should go around insulting anyone. But when it comes to talking about our spiritual higher power, there are so many beliefs. When people write or talk about the higher power, they walk on eggshells, afraid of turning people away. I would like share some of my life stories. In The Promise, Robert Welch continues his testimony that began in his first book, Reaching Out. The Promise takes a closer look at the spiritual awakening that Rob has undergone, particularly the messages that he has received from heaven, his personal beliefs, and the promises that God makes to each of us.
