Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Beatty, Jellicoe, Sims and Rodman: Yankee Gobs and British Tars as Seen by an Anglomanic In one of your less recent letters there is a casual remark, little considered by you, or even by me until, from a smoldering ember of thought it has brightened, sputtered, and at last burst into ame. You will have to write a book, you remarked, to let me share your new experiences. Have you forgotten it? Behold the oak, from such a tiny acorn! But it is not a mighty oak, and needs defense. The wonder is that the fabric holds together at all. If, for a moment, you could look back over the varying conditions of temperature, climate, hopes, misgivings, noises, interruptions, rolls, and pitches under which these pages have been written you would excuse every irregularity. Furthermore, despite their novelty, these experiences present no single hero, an author s greatest friend, for you to follow. Still, the advantage is mine, for I fear no critics. This little work is for you, and after that for others who may care for it. Please try to have a pleasant time. You feel doubtful - but you know all jour neys to war are doubtful!
