Tate Publishing Enterprises, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 221 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Back matter: After thirty-four years of marriage, Robert Fraser s wife was diagnosed with cancer. She became terminally ill, totally dependent on him, and eventually passed away in 1999. When she died, Robert vowed to himself and his four grown children to move on with his life. He began to do all the things he d always wanted to do but hadn t for the sake of his family. He took up martial arts, horseback riding, kayaking, hang gliding, wind surfing, and scuba diving. He started flying lessons again and became a licensed pilot with an IFR rating. He started sky diving, making his first jump at age sixty-five. He attended the Advanced Space Academy, worked for NASA for four and a half years, but regrettably never got to go to space with NASA. He did travel to Russia and paid them to take him to the edge of space. He hiked through part of the Himalayas and ended up in Shangri-La. In spite of all this, he still felt empty. Being a Christian, Robert felt he should take this opportunity to do something for God, so he decided to follow the Bible s teachings, go out into the world, and help his fellow man. He started doing volunteer work, which eventually led to numerous trips to China, where he met Lee Ch eng. After seven years of being alone, Robert found himself in love with this young Chinese woman. Whether you re married or single, this personal love story-a story about a love that stretched from the Shanghai Sky to Cleveland, Ohio-will encourage you that no matter where you are in life or where you...
